

Silver Linings Playbook 2012 UK/US c.3 min. 27:45 -29:42 Jennifer Lawrence, Bradley Cooper: ► 17 - Clip 1: YouTube IMDb Il Lato Positivo

- grammar points: used to, double negative, comparative, present perfect, going to, should, can, imperative
- phrasal verbs: be on meds, walk someone home, drive someone home, come on, wake up
- idioms: make, be like, how about?, flatten out, take out of, right, I bet, even, be done, or what? tell the truth, mean, in third person, the good one, just, fine, right, guys, man

• questions:

1. What are the two people talking about at the beginning?

- The prescription pills they've taken
- The movies they've seen
- The food they know how to cook

2. After the woman says she's tired, she _____.

- asks the man if he'll drive her home
- asks the man if he'll walk her home
- asks her sister to drive her home

3. The man says that the woman _____.

- is crazy
- scares people
- has poor social skills

4. The woman's sister tells her husband to _____.

- drive the woman home
- drive both the man and the woman home
- walk the woman home

5. The woman who is standing asks her sister to _____.

- stop telling people she's a bad person
- stop talking about her in the third person
- stop talking about her in front of other people

.....
TIFFANY:

What meds are you on?

PAT:

Me? None. I used to be on Lithium and Seroquel and Abilify, but I don't take them anymore, no.

They make me foggy and they also make me bloated.

TIFFANY:

Yeah, I was on Xanax and Effexor, but I agree, I wasn't as sharp, so I stopped.

PAT:
You ever take Klonopin?

TIFFANY:
Klonopin? Yeah.

PAT:
Right?

TIFFANY:
Jesus.

PAT:
It's like, What? What day is it? How about Trazodone?

TIFFANY:
Trazodone!

PAT:
Oh, it flattens you out. I mean, you are done.
It takes the light right out of your eyes.

TIFFANY:
Yeah, I bet it does...I'm tired. I want to go.

SISTER:
No. No, no, no, no.
We haven't, we haven't even finished the salad yet, or the duck.
I made the Fire and Ice cake.

TIFFANY:
I said I'm tired. Are you going to walk me home or what?

PAT:
You mean me?

TIFFANY:
Yeah, you. Are you going to walk me home?

PAT:
You have poor social skills. You have a problem.

TIFFANY:
I have a problem? You say more inappropriate things than appropriate things.
You scare people.

PAT:
I tell the truth. But you're mean.

TIFFANY:

What? I'm not telling the truth?

BROTHER-IN-LAW:

Um, maybe I should drive them home separately?

SISTER:

You can drive them both home. Now.

TIFFANY:

Stop talking about me in third person.

SISTER:

You can take Tiffany home first.

TIFFANY:

You love it when I have problems. You love it, Von, because then you can be the good one. Just say it.

SISTER:

No... I don't. I don't. I just wanted to have a nice...I just wanted to have a nice dinner.

TIFFANY:

Oh, God.

SISTER:

What is your problem?!

TIFFANY:

Nothing's my problem! I'm fine. I'm tired and I want to go. Come on, are you ready?

SISTER:

You really, you really want to go right now?

TIFFANY:

Yes, I really want to go! It's been great.

BROTHER-IN-LAW:

Okay, guys, the baby is sleeping!

TIFFANY:

Sorry. I don't want to wake up the baby. Bye.

BROTHER-IN-LAW:

Sorry, man...